NARRATIVE:

Kilgore, a documented member of the Bloods street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include carrying a concealed weapon, possession of a firearm by a felon, battery, vandalism, corporal injury on spouse, possession of marijuana, and violations of parole supervision. He has recently served a three (3) year state prison term for corporal injury on spouse. Kilgore was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 03rd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Kilgore qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for corporal injury on spouse, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, status as an active gang member, as well as his current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
